

COS Vocational Education

two-minute report

COLLEGE OF THE SEQUOIAS VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Senate Edition

The COS Academic Senate held their final meeting of the 2003-2004 academic year in room 1 on Wednesday. As a special treat the senate recognized several faculty members that were nominated for state Academic Senate Awards. Hunter Church-Gonzalez, Robin McGehee and Carol Enns received plaques from the senate for being nominated for the Rebecca Regina-Stroud Diversity Award. They have all been instrumental in promoting diversity on the COS Campus.

Dr. Pamela Faller, Rob Hansen and Judy House were honored as nominees for the Hayward Award. The award is given for outstanding faculty who have contributed to their campuses and the academic senate. The award is named after former California

Diversity Award Winners

(l-r) Hunter Church-Gonzalez, Carol Enns and Robin McGehee show off their awards after being honored at the COS Senate meeting.

Community College Chancellor Gerald Hayward who is also an alumni of College of the Sequoias.

Senate president Richard Peterson was given a painting, signed by senators, as a gift for his outstanding contributions to the COS Senate.

Richard was praised for his work in leading the senate over the past two years.

If you see these great COS Faculty members about campus, take a minute to congratulate them and tell them how much you support the great work that they do!

Picasso

Richard Peterson with his pride and joy. A painting presented to him by the COS Senators.

Hayward Award Winners

(l-r) Dr. Pamela Faller, Rob Hansen and Judy House honored by the COS Academic Senate.