

COS Student Senate Clubs - Spring 2024

Please contact Club Advisors for club meeting information

Revised 2/2/2024

Club	Advisor	Meetings	Club Mission
Student Senate*	Wil Hobbs williamh@cos.edu	Tuesdays 11am-12pm COS Board Room	COS Student Senate develops student leaders through the leadership courses, student advocacy and oversight of COS student clubs. Monthly events and Inter-Club Council meetings provide opportunity for clubs to gain new members and interact regularly.
A2Mend/Bstars	Curtis Allen curtisa@cos.edu	2nd & 4th Fridays 11:00am - 1:00pm John Muir 101	To encourage all members to pursue higher education, inspire members to make habits of hard work and dedication in their pursuit of success. Participate in stimulating learning activities, to develop campus and community networks. To promote and bring awareness of grants and services available to all members in the community. To promote self-awareness of heritage and acquire a more positive self-image. To diminish anxiety, stress and feeling of loneliness.
Ag Business	Shannan Cooper shannanc@cos.edu	1st Wednesday 12:00pm - 1:00 pm B124 (Tulare campus)	To promote agricultural business, expose students to industry, provide leadership opportunities, and encourage networking.
Ag Council	Allison Ferry-Abee allisonf@cos.edu	1st Wednesday 12 pm TCC Building B B124	All AG club officers and advisors leading Tulare AG Clubs.

AJ - Administration of Justice	Laura Lathrop laurala@cos.edu Candy Alvarez candidoa@cos.edu	2nd & 4th Mondays 12:45 pm - 1:45 pm Kern 731	To encourage student interest in the criminal justice fields of law enforcement and corrections, build leadership and organizational skills, encourage public service, as well as supplement and enrich criminal justice studies associated with the college Administration of Justice instructional curriculum.
Alliance of Biological and Chemical Sciences ABCs	Courtney Traugh courtneytr@cos.edu	Fridays 12:00 am - 1:00 pm John Muir 107	For COS students interested in majoring in Chemistry, Biology and other related sciences with the intent to transfer to study those disciplines at universities.
Animation Production Club*	Carinne Knight carinne@cos.edu	Fridays 3:00 pm - 4:00 pm Kaweah 264A	To provide an opportunity for students to collaborate and work on different areas of storytelling such as screenwriting, storyboarding, character design, set design, animation, and editing. We help students get a head start in the entertainment industry by learning the process of production and networking.
Artistic Company	Chris Mangels chrism@cos.edu	Wednesday (bi-weekly) (Starting Nov. 1) 5:30 pm Theatre (Sawtooth) 320A	Artistic Company, believing that participating in dramatic activities is beneficial to both participants and audiences, and wishing to further the cause of involvement in theatre at the College of the Sequoias.

Association of College Entrepreneurs (A.C.E)*	Jessica Gutierrez Jessicagu@cos.edu	Mondays (Biweekly) 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm Kern 719	The association of College Entrepreneurs (A.C.E), serving College of the Sequoias, is committed to bringing out the best in its members and preparing them for career success. A.C.E. will seek to provide its members with professional and leadership opportunities. Through numerous workshops and mock interviews, state and national conferences and community service projects. A.C.E. will help increase the number of young, educated and qualified professionals entering the work force.
Chess Club	David Jones davidjo@cos.edu	Fridays 5 pm - 6 pm John Muir
College Democrats*	Randy Villegas randyv@cos.edu Elizabeth Gutierrez* elizabethgu@cos.edu*	Fridays (biweekly) 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm Student Senate Conference Room/Zoom	To render service to the student body and the COS as a whole by stimulating in students an active interest in government. Also, endeavor to foster and perpetuate the ideals and principles of the Democratic Party, and to provide for our people through its administration the hugest degree of justice, social welfare and happiness.
College Republicans	Holly Peltzer hollyp@cos.edu	1st & 3rd Wednesday 12:00pm - 1:00 pm Visalia Kern Rm 712B	We believe that conservative values and policies are the best way to preserve that dignity and freedom which is the birthright of every American. The club advances its purpose by fostering community between the members and with the broader conservative community to drive engagement of conservative youth in political activism.
Crop Science	Charlie Abee charlesa@cos.edu	4th Tuesday of month 12:00 - 1:00 pm Tulare B 124

D and D (Dungeons & Dragons)	Matthew Nelson matthewn@cos.edu	Wednesdays (bi-weekly) 11am-12pm Kern 729B	Providing a welcoming and inclusive environment for students interested in playing, discussing, and exploring the world of table-top role-playing games with a focus on Dungeons & Dragons.
EOPS Achievers Club*	Brett Kennedy brettk@cos.edu	TBD	The purpose of the EOPS club shall be to encourage educational growth on campus and in the community. To provide charitable services on campus and in the community. To encourage cultural, social and leadership skills on campus in the community. Discuss and promote current multi-cultural career opportunities and future trends in California education.
Equine	Kim Pitigliano kimp@cos.edu	3rd Thursday 12:00 - 1:00 pm Equine Barn, LH 100
Gamer's Den	David Jones davidjo@cos.edu	Fridays 12pm-3pm Student Center-2nd floor	The Gamer's Den, serving the College of the Sequoias, is committed to building the gaming community for students. The organization accomplishes its mission by creating a space where students can come to have fun, relax and build strong friendships.

Generation Action	Tracy Redden tracyr@cos.edu Annie Silva annies@cos.edu	TBD	The Mission of COS Planned Parenthood Generation Action is to mobilize the COS student body with the organization and advocacy skills necessary to lead the nation-wide reproductive and sexual justice movement into a bright future We focus on including all identities, fighting abortion stigma, promoting election awareness and participation, and building meaningful initiatives. We will connect COS students to the diversity of health care services PPMM provides, opportunities for advocacy and grassroots organization, and comprehensive education about topics relevant to reproductive justice.
Giant Astronomy Students (GAS)*	Marc Royster marcr@cos.edu Eric Heatherton erich@cos.edu	Bi-Weekly - Thursdays 6:00-7:00 pm John Muir 201	To garner and cultivate interest in astronomy for both science and non-science majors by providing a space for students to discuss current astronomy discoveries and opportunities to observe the night skies.
International*	Johnny Fang johnnyf@cos.edu Osiris DeLeon Osirisd@cos.edu	Wednesday (bi-weekly) 3:00 PM - 5:00 PM ESS 145	The purpose of the International Club is to create fun learning opportunities for Non-Native Speakers of English (NNSE).
InterVarsity Christian Fellowship	Brian Johnson brianjo@cos.edu	Mondays 2:00 pm - 3:30pm Student Center Thursdays 3:30pm -4:30 pm Sierra 817	To establish and advance at college of the Sequoias witnessing communities of students and faculty go follow Jesus as Savior and Lord, growing in love for God, God's Word, God's people of every ethnicity and culture and God's purposes in the world.

Livestock	Russell McKeith russellm@cos.edu	Thursdays 12pm -1 pm TCC Bldg. B-118	This club is for students who have a passion for livestock animals and/or the livestock industry. It is designed to expose students to the vibrant Livestock Industry of California and give them the opportunity to make industry connections.
MEChA	James Espinoza jamese@cos.edu Octavio Barajas OctavioB@cos.edu	Thursday 3:30 pm - 4:30 pm Kern Rm. 729B	To promote political, cultural and education awareness through historical knowledge of the Chicano Movement and Boarder Civil Rights Movement. Provide Personal and educational support for students and educate our community on social justice issues. Encourage awareness & pride in affirming the complexities of self-identity. Support the struggle of other progressive movements on our campus, communities, nationally and internationally.
Ornamental Horticulture	Fernando Fernandez fernandof@cos.edu	2nd Tuesday 12:00 pm Building B TCC Rm B124	To Provide opportunities for students interested in horticulture to share ideas, participate in community service activities, engage in educational activities outside the classroom setting, and practice leadership skills.
Pathway to the Museum*	Katherine Becker katherineb@cos.edu	Wednesdays * 4:00 PM Sycamore 204	To give insight to possible career paths to students with History, Art, Music and Fashion degrees by observing these careers first hand.
Philosophy	Timothy Linehan timothyl@cos.edu Timothy Houk timothyho@cos.edu	TBD	To encourage philosophical reflection on campus and in the community. Encourage students to develop critical thinking skills of intellectual autonomy, courage, justice and integrity. To provide an opportunity for considering philosophical issues from a variety of perspectives. To provide students organizing and leadership opportunities.

Pre-Healthcare Student Association*	Tess Hernandez tessh@cos.edu	Fridays 3:00 PM 101	2:00 - John Muir	To build a community specifically designated to students interested in health-related fields. With the intention to provide mentorship, community partnerships and field related experience that are not
Pride*	Matthew Nelson matthewn@cos.edu	TBD contact advisor		The Pride Club is an all inclusive focused on the betterment of the LGBTQ+ community and allies. The club and its advisor(s) will provide a safe space to explore the issues surrounding the LGBTQ+ community. The club will work to further awareness of the LGBTQ+ community.
Printworks*	Francisco Alonso franciscoa@cos.edu Matthew Rangel matthewr@cos.edu	Monday 2:00pm - 3:00pm Kaweah 263A		To encourage students on campus to find out what printing is and how it's done. Provide Students with information and history on printmaking and to promote printmaking activities on campus.
Puente	Ambar Alvarez Soto ambara@cos.edu	Wednesdays 1:10 pm - 2:10 pm TBD		The purpose of the Puente club is to be a support group for academic success. The Puente Club will also help build leadership skills and create and build a mentor networking system.
Quill	Stacy Brand stacyb@cos.edu	Fridays 3pm - 4:45pm Student Center-2nd Floor		To help students who are interested in creative writing to network and share their work with fellow students and to promote the advancement of Creative writing students in employment and education.
Rotaract	Tim Foster timf@cos.edu	2nd & 4th Thursdays 12:10pm - 1pm Hospital Rock, Rm 133		To provide an opportunity for young men and women to enhance the knowledge and skills that will assist them in personal development, to address the physical and social needs of their communities, and to promote better relations between all people worldwide through a framework of friendship and service.

Social Work	JulieAnn Jones julieannj@cos.edu	2nd Tuesday, 12:30pm-1:30pm COS-Kern Rm 734	To promote information and education on social justice issues. Fundraising to assist non-profit agencies, communities, and COS students.
Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers SHPE*	Tess Hernandez tessh@cos.edu	Fridays (Biweekly) 11:00am -12:00 pm John Muir 101	To empower minorities in the STEM field. To allow future professional STEM majors to grow academically, professionally, and socially.
Society of Legal Studies	Pura Cordero puracp@cos.edu	Fridays 10:00am - 11:00am Kern TBA	To establish good fellowship among this society, members of the legal profession, and support the Pathway to Law School Program through community outreach and civic engagement.
Sociology Club*	Catherine Medrano catherineme@cos.edu Esther Sandoval esthers@cos.edu	Wednesdays (Biweekly) 3:00 - 4:00 pm Sycamore Rm 203	The Sociology is for students who are interested in exploring the discipline of Sociology. The club will help expose students to different areas of research within the field of Sociology, increase awareness of what careers may await Sociology Majors, nourish professional networks, and teach students to apply their "sociology imagination" to social issues.
Students Integrating Numerical Education SINE	Tracy Redden tracyr@cos.edu	Friday (bi-weekly) 4pm- 5pm John Muir 101	The purpose of this club shall be to prepare for math challenge exams, to participate in math related activities, to prepare math major for transfer.
Tule Valley Allies*	Amber Vasquez amberi@cos.edu Marle Prochmow Marlep@cos.edu	Tuesdays 2:30 pm - 3:30 pm	The Tule Valley Allies serving the College of the Sequoias, is committed to celebrating Native American heritage and increasing awareness and knowledge of Native American culture at COS. The club accomplishes its mission by hosting Native American activities on campus, meeting with local Native American tribal members and different Native american programs locally.

Women in STEM*	Jennifer Verissimo jenniferv@cos.edu	Tuesdays pm - 1 pm Kern, 715A	12 To support women in STEM majors at COS, creat a community that fosters success in STEM careers and provide women in STEM majors opportunities for personal and career growth.
-----------------------	---	-------------------------------------	---